

Generally I'm in favor of RM-10352. I just feel it's not necessary to split the band during daylight hours when only groundwave exists. How would the Commission enforce such a rule if the monitoring station is out of range of the station operating illegally?

I'm in favor of splitting the band sunset to sunrise but would like to see the bottom moved up to 1853 KHz.

Regards

Hardy Landskov N7RT